

Acting Out!

Acting Out! Is a peer education troupe that uses theatre to address issues critical today's teens. This troupe performs skits, often written by themselves, to teach skills in resisting risky choices regarding substance abuse and bullying.

The Monona County Community Alliance (MCCA) Substance Abuse Coalition members sponsored this troupe at the Monona County Fair on Friday, July 13, 2012. They performed from 6:00 – 7:00 p.m. at the 4-H Exhibit Building. Audience members learned firsthand how making poor decisions can affect their lives.

Cheri Hardison, Monona County Extension Coordinator and MCCA member, introduced Linnea Fletcher, Jackson Recovery Senior Prevention Specialist and MCCA member. Other MCCA members present were Geri Johnson Harvey Hanson, and Laura Oliver.

Linnea Fletcher, MCCA member, introduced the Director

Kirsten Colt, Director of Acting Out!

Acting Out Troupe: L-R: Anna from West High School, Joanna, student at W.I.T., Josie and Victor, also West High School students

L-R: Josie and Victor from Acting Out! Chosen for audience participation: Skyler and Hunter Hostetler from Sloan and Jennifer Kennedy from Onawa